What is Ecomondo

Ecomondo is the international fair of Green Economy, the leading one in the Mediterranean area. It focuses on materials and energy recovery and sustainable development.

Italy is among the leading countries in Europe for Green Economy, in particular for energy efficiency, waste recycling and resource productivity.

For this reasons, Ecomondo is a reference meeting point in the international panorama, where all the leading companies of the sector can meet, know the trends, innovations and new technologies, compare with the sector professionals.

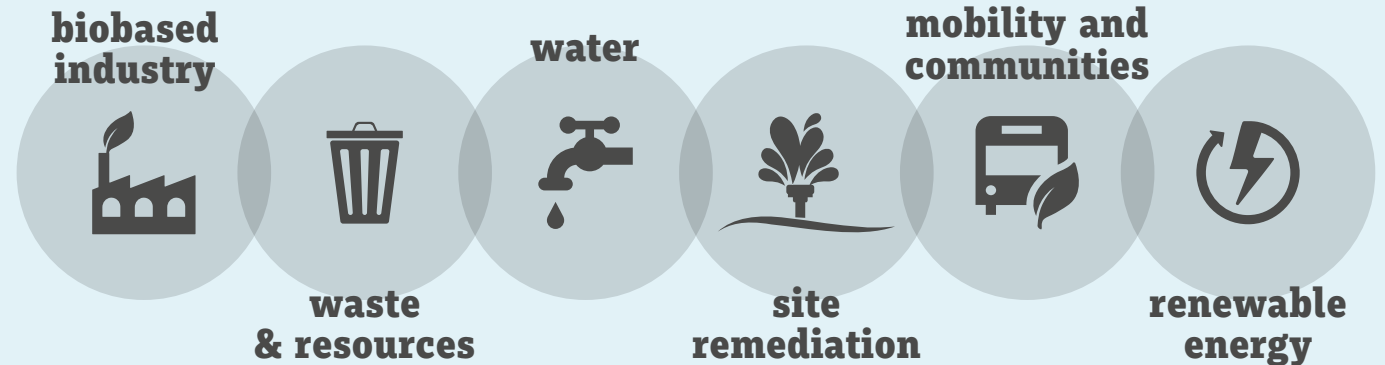

Five reasons that make it unmissable

- 1. To meet market leader companies from all over the world
- 2. To make networking with international buyers
- 3. To know the best practises for circular economy
- 4. To discover technological innovations and market trends
- 5. To find concrete solutions for competitiveness and for business growth
